DEATH SNATCHES FRUIT OF VICTORY FROM SAM BEADLES

City Jailer-Elect Succumbs to Illness at His Home Few Weeks Before He Would Have Succeeded to the Office Was Popular Policeman.

DIED SHORTLY BEFORE NOON

Samuel Beadles, city jailer-elect and formerly one of the best known policemen in Paducah, died this morning at 11 o'clock of paralysis at his residence, 1125 Madison street, after an intermittent illness covering several months. The stroke seized him at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Beadles was one of the three Democrats who won on the city ticket, being elected by 329 majority. He would have assumed the office January 1. The appointment of a jailer to fill the vacancy will be made by the mayor.

Mr. Beadles was 47 years old and was a native of Wingo, Graves county. He had lived in Paducah 16 years and was seven years on the police force, making a most competent officer. Previous to that he was a railroad conductor.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Peter, Burnie, Frank, James, Edna and Lena Beadles. His mother and two brothers also survive him.

He was a member of the Eagles, Woodmen of the World and Masons.

GOLDEN CROSS MEETING AT LOUISVILLE TODAY.

Magistrate J. H. Burnett left this morning for Louisville to attend a called meeting of the state executive committee of the Golden Cross, which was called to accept the resignation of State President R. A. Barnes of Louisville, and to elect his successor. Mr. Barnes has resigned to enter the ministry of the Baptist church. The executive committee is composed of eight members, four of which are from Paducah and four from Louisville. The Paducah members of the committee besides Squire Burnett are C. B. Hatfield, J. M. Lang and Mrs. Mary Kidd. Only Squire Burnett could attend the meeting. It is almost certain that James A. Hodges, of Louisville, will be elected to succeed Mr. Barnes as grand commander.

CHANGE IN AGENTS MADE BY N. C. & ST. L. ROAD.

Mr. W. E. King, who has been the agent for the N. C. & St. L. railroad at Murray for many years, has been made agent at Paris, Tenn., and will take charge of the Paris office January 1. Although it has not been definitely settled, it is understood that Mr. William Hills, at present night train dispatcher at Paducah, will be made agent at Murray. Mr. Hills returned from Murray a few days ago and while there secured an option upon Mr. King's elegant residence, which he will buy, should he decide to accept the place.

FIREMEN THROW STREAM ON THE BURNING CINDERS

Firemen from No. 3 fire station were compelled to keep a stream of water on a pile of burning cinders at the glass plant yesterday afternoon and this morning in order to prevent a large tank holding 200 gallons of oil from becoming ignited and causing serious loss. Cinders had been thrown in large heaps on both sides of the tank and yesterday began blazing and the department was summoned.

PADUCAH MAN HONORED AT VALLEY CONVENTION.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 15.—At a meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, S. A. Fowler, of Paducah, was elected one of the Kentucky vice-presidents.

Verdict for Defendant.

After being out but a few seconds the jury in the case of Enoch Lynn against John Terrell for $5,000 damages, brought in a verdict for the defendant. Lynn sued Terrell for personal injuries. He claimed that he was disabled in an encounter with Terrell in which he was knocked down by a blow from Terrell's fist. Terrell's defense was that Lynn had meddled with his domestic affairs and otherwise provoked him until he finally struck him in the face.

Mr. Phelps' Funeral.

At 1:30 o'clock today the body of Mr. Everett Phelps, who died in Knoxville, Tenn., arrived over the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, and will be taken to his county home to be buried in Ogden cemetery.

PUBLIC TO BE ENTERTAINED BY TWO GREAT LECTURES IN HONOR OF THE ANNIVERSARY

Congregation of St. Francis de Sales Invites Paducahans to Hear Father Lambert

Not only will the celebration of the Triduum Thanksgiving in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the pastorate of Father Jansen in the church of St. Francis de Sales be of interest to Paducahans on account of their love and respect for the popular priest, but it will be the occasion of an intellectual treat as well. The congregation of St. Francis de Sales has secured the attendance of Father A. A. Lambert, of Chicago, a lecturer of country-wide reputation, to deliver an address to the public in the Kentucky theater Sunday night, when he will speak on "Woman in Society," and at the church Tuesday night on "Science and Revelation." This is a compliment to the non-Catholic population of Paducah, because the members of the church feel that others than themselves will not have the opportunity to participate in the Triduum Thanksgiving, and some feature should be arranged of a general public nature. No better intellectual treat will be offered the people of the city this winter than Father Lambert's lectures.

The Rev. A. A. Lambert will arrive Saturday and be the guest of Father Jansen. The Rt. Rev. Bishop William George McCloskey, of Louisville, will officiate at the opening service of the Triduum at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. There will be confirmation services at 7:30 o'clock that morning.

Twenty-five years' service in one church is so unusual that this celebration is attracting wide attention

WEST KENTUCKY COAL CO. MINES HAD FIRE AGAIN

West Kentucky Coal company officials are here today in a conference over the local situation, and in this trip are visiting all the agencies of the company including the mines at Sturgis, J. T. Gardiner, president; J. C. Brydon, vice president; Howard Dutcher, traveling auditor; R. Seeley, general accountant; W. H. Cunningham, superintendent of mines, and C. M. Riker, local manager, are in the party.

Fire again broke out in the mines at Sturgis night before last and the cause as usual is unknown. The fire this time was in the shaft of colliery H. The damage was not as great as in other fires there but will require ten days to repair.

Reports were brought to the city last night by officers of the Dunbar in the Evansville river trade, that fifteen dummy cars loaded with coal ran into the river from the tipple at Sturgis yesterday. The block holding the cars was not in place when they started down the incline. The loss in coal will not be significant, the principal trouble occasioned by the delay in fishing out the cars.

It is said that the West Kentucky Coal company will secure the wharf space recently held by the St. Bernard Coal company between Kentucky avenue and Washington streets. The West Kentucky company already new trial in the case of Mrs. Belle wharfboat, but increasing business will require more river front.

INVITE STATE PRESS

The Pennyrile Press association, in the parlors of the Palmer House today, took steps toward inviting the Kentucky Press association to Paducah next summer. Secretary J. S. Lawrence will begin correspondence immediately toward that end. One new member, J. C. Newman, of the Lyon County Herald, was admitted into the association. Present in today's meeting were: Judge E. Barry, Benton Tribune-Democrat, president; John S. Lawrence, Cadiz Record, secretary; J. L. Smith, Kuttawa Times; W. O. Wear, Calloway County Times. The next meeting will be in Paducah the third Friday in February.

TWO GUNBOATS BURNED IN BALTIC SHIP YARDS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—Fire today destroyed part of the Baltic ship yards, and burned two gunboats in course of construction.

THE POWERS JURY

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 15.—(Special)—They are selecting a jury to try Caleb Powers. The first 100 of the veniremen are on hand. Powers was ill last night, but is present today.

NO FOOTBALL GAME

The football game scheduled for today is postponed until tomorrow because the S. K. C. team missed connections at Princeton and will not be able to reach this city till 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. The S. K. C. boys will remain over for a game with the Cutleys tomorrow at 3:30 o'clock at League park.

BURGLARS AFTER HOARDED WEALTH ARE FIRED UPON

Second Attempt Made to Loot
Freidman & Keiler's Office
Thwarted By Nervy Employe Who Shoots Twice at Fleeing Figures.

EXPECT TO FIND SOME MONEY

Employees blocked a second attempt to burglarize the offices of Friedman, Keiler & Company last night, and two shots were fired at the fleeing intruders, and one of the shots, it is believed, did not go far wide of the mark for which it was intended.

Early in the evening suspicious looking characters were noticed lurking around the building, and Leslie and Clarence Ogilvie, trusted employees of the company, were told to return to the building by the rear entrance after they had gone out front, as though they were going home at the close of the day's work. Just as Leslie Ogilvie entered the yard in the rear of the building he heard a shuffling of feet and called to his companion to open the coal house door.

As he did so a man, believed to be white, jumped out of the coal house, while another sprang up from behind some boxes. Both ran and Ogilvie sent two shots in rapid succession after them. As he had an unobstructed view the last shot Mr. Ogilvie believed that he winged his man, though, of course, he cannot be sure of it. There is no money whatever kept in the building and the burglars would have been poorly paid for their trouble if they had entered the building.

Other reports of attempted burglaries have been made since the money stringency began, crooks evidently believing that money is being hoarded in offices and other places by people, who will not deposit it in bank.

SOME MERCHANTS BOUGHT HOLIDAY FIREWORKS STOCK

Merchants who have bought a stock of cannon crackers, toy pistols and other explosives to be sold the youth of the city during the holidays have found that they will be prohibited from selling the noisy bundles this Christmas and the small boy will find that he will be arrested should he attempt to use them. The stock of cannon crackers, toy pistols sky rockets. The ordinance provides that the mayor, may in his discretion allow the use of fireworks, but when seen this morning Mayor Yelser expressed himself as being strictly opposed to the use of fireworks and would not give permission, especially during the holidays. "They are dangerous to life, limb and property, and I think the ordinance prohibiting their use a good one," was his comment when asked regarding the matter.

Although the ordinance was passed and published in due form, many merchants overlooked its existence in buying holiday goods and some of them bought heavily of the things that are under the ban.

SLEEPER IS ROBBED

A farmer named Sparks reported to the police this morning that he had been robbed of a pocketbook containing $7 in money and some valuable papers, while he was asleep in a wagon at Iseman's wagon yard, Second and Washington streets. Patrolman Cross was detailed on the case and made an investigation, but no arrests have yet been made.

Grain Market.

St. Louis, Nov. 15.—Wheat, 96; Corn, 62½; oats, 49.

TEST LOCAL OPTION LAW

Metropolis, Ill., Nov. 15.—(Special)—A telegram sent to John O'Brien, agent for the Murphyboro Brewing company, states that the company has entered suit to test the constitutionality of the local option law, under which the whole of Southern Illinois was voted dry. They have picked 13 alleged flaws in the law.

The Conference

In notes on the Methodist conference at Humboldt the Commercial Appeal says:

Humboldt is entertaining the conference royalty and every one is claiming that he has the best home. Brownsville, Covington and Paducah will invite the conference to meet with them next year, and as it has been in the lower end of the territory, Paducah stands a good chance to win, being in the upper portion of the conference limits.

The Rev. Peter Fields is the largest man in the conference, and a good preacher as well, judging from his sermon Wednesday night.

It is rumored there will be a clean sweep of preachers in Paducah and that Broadway, Trimble Street and Third Street will all have new pastors another year.

STREET CAR STRIKE! ON IN LOUISVILLE

Men Go Out But Police Will Insure Partial Service

Louisville, Nov. 15. (Special)—In obedience to a vote of the street car men's union last night, a strike was declared on this morning. Four hundred strikebreakers reached town this morning and were distributed to different barns. The mayor assured police protection. Six policemen are on each car. At a conference of the city officials and street railway officials last night agreement was made for a conference today to consider arbitration. Ben Commons, the union leader, agreed but the union overrode his agreement, and voted almost unanimously to strike this morning. The company claims it will give partial service right along. Police have strict orders to break up crowds and prevent rioting.

As the day advanced more cars were put on, manned by strikebreakers. The police continued to keep splendid order. There was no trouble of any moment. One man, who threw a rock, was arrested and fined $50 at once.

Henderson Strike Over.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 15.—The street railway strike here is off. The Commercial club secured a compromise.

TO GREET BRYAN

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 15.—Chairman Taggart, of the national Democratic committee, has gone to New York, it is said, and won't be at French Lick for the Bryan banquet Monday. At least 10,000 Democrats will be here to greet Bryan, who announced yesterday that he will accept the nomination if it is tendered him.

MR. STORK IS HOME

Mr. Clifford Stork, a former Paducah boy, is with the "Strongheart" company, here tonight, playing Dick Livingston, the principal juvenile lead. Mr. Stork lived in Paducah twelve years ago, and was one of the most popular of the young men of that day. He was a pressman on the old News, and called at The Sun office today renewing old acquaintances. He has been a thespian for eleven years now, and got his first touch of the profession here, at the old La Belle park summer theater, where for a time he played with the stock company there, under the management of Mr. William Malone. Mr. Stork has been connected with one of the leading stock companies of the east for the last five years, and only joined the "Strongheart" forces this season. He has achieved quite a reputation in his profession, and his friends are predicting big things for him.

THE WEATHER.

MAY INCREASE SCHOOL LEVY TEN CENTS TO COVER DEFICIT CAUSED BY TWO BUILDINGS

THIRTY PER CENT OF I. C. WAGES WILL BE IN CASH

Charter Provides That When City is Advanced From Third to Second Class That Provision May be Taken Advantage of.

Will Give Levy of Forty-five Cents on $100 and Might Solve Problem Confronting School Board of This City—The Plan.

Provision was made in the charter of second class cities that when it is advanced from the third class, the school levy of 35 cents from the city could be increased ten cents for building purposes exclusively. Third class cities receive fifty cents on the one hundred dollars from the city tax fund, but second class cities receive only thirty-five cents. This decrease in the case of Paducah was felt in the finances of the school, and the legislature was foresighted enough to insert the provision for a ten cent increase. With the erection of two new buildings and the further building needs of the next two years, it is probable that the school board will demand the extra ten cents on the one hundred dollars from the city. Trustee O. G. Kelly will bring it before the board in time to act before the 1908 apportionments are made by the city. The addition of ten cents to the present 35 cents will help the board out materially in its finances.

Looking ahead a year or two it is evident to some of the trustees that the old Lee building, Fourth and Ohio streets, will become unsuitable for school purposes and a new structure will be built either there or in some other location to suit the movements of population. The ten cent increase can be used only for buildings, but the board is in debt for the two new buildings now in course of construction, so that it will be many years before the city could expect the board to rescind the extra apportionment, if ever.

FOR WALSH'S DISMISSAL

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15.—On claims that John R. Walsh is guilty of nothing more criminal than bad judgment in misappropriating twenty millions of the bank's funds and that banking laws are a dead letter, his lawyers will ask for his dismissal without submission of evidence, in his behalf, soon as the government's evidence is completed.

Hunting Quails.

Many of the shopmen, who were wanting a day's recreation, took advantage of the expiration of the bird law today and went after quail. Engineer Edgar Evets and Fireman A. C. Slayden headed a party that went down in Fulton county, where friends of the railroad men had invited them.

SEVERAL ARE KILLED IN CANADIAN PACIFIC WRECK.

Ottawa, Can., Nov. 15.—Vague dispatches at the Canadian Pacific offices state that from seven to ten were killed in a wreck near North Bay early today and quite a number are reported injured.

CORONER SAYS SUICIDE IN C. T. BARNEY CASE.

New York, Nov. 15.—The coroner, despite the protest of friends of Charles T. Barney, former president of the Knickerbocker Trust company, holds to the suicide view. The coroner is inquiring into the domestic affairs and threatened divorce of Barney's wife, because, it is said, of an unknown woman, who after Barney's financial troubles, deserted him.

UNION JACK IS HUNG OUT AT THE POSTOFFICE.

The "Union Jack" has been hoisted in front of the postoffice, and in consequence a great many questions are being asked by passersby, who are inquisitive. The Union Jack is one of Uncle Sam's flags, which are used on board of the ships on Sundays and holidays and when the ship is in a foreign port. The reason for the appearance of the flag at the postoffice is that the U. S. navy recruiting office has just been opened there. Recruiting station in the basement of the postoffice in charge of A. Holtz and A. L. Deranek.

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing a supply of moisture or nutrient, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Dr. Knowlton's DANDERINE

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knollton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

BRYAN TO ACCEPT IF IT IS OFFERED

Peerless one Coyly Flirts With Nomination

Delivers Himself of Statement at Omaha and He is Still Leader of Democracy.

WHAT HE SAYS IN INTERVIEW

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 18.—William J. Bryan will accept the Democratic nomination for president in 1908, but will not ask nor make a fight for it. He says that for a year or more he has been pressed to answer the question: "Will you accept the nomination?" and he believes the public is entitled to an answer and to know the position he occupies. The question that ought to weight most, he says, is whether his nomination will strengthen the Democratic party more than the nomination of some one else. He denies he has waited this long to see whom the Republicans are likely to nominate or to ascertain the chances of victory.

Bryan, after making the above statement, said: "His availability is a question to be decided not by him, not by a few leaders, not leading newspapers that call themselves Democratic, but by voters of the party, and to them he entrusts the decision of the question—they are the supreme court in all matters concerning candidates, as they are in all matters concerning the platform.

He assumes that they will not select him unless they desire to make an aggressive fight for the application of Democratic principles to present conditions, and he also takes it for granted that the organization of the party will be in harmony with the platform and will be composed of men with political records that will invite confidence and give the assurance that the victory if won, will not be a barren victory.

The Republicans must nominate either a reformer, stand-patter, or one whose position on the public questions is unknown, and the course of the Democratic party would be the same no matter which element controls the Republican convention. The Democratic party must make its fight for what it believes. While it may take advantage of the Republican mistakes, it must depend upon its own merits for success and not upon the error of its opponents.

The action of the Republican convention may have its influence in determining the relative availability of Democratic candidates, but it ought not to have any influence in determining the question whether the one chosen by the Democrats should accept the nomination. If the rank and file of the Democratic party desire Bryan to make the race, he will make it no matter who may be the Republican nominee.

"No one can estimate the chances of the party in the next campaign with sufficient accuracy to make his candidacy dependent on the outlook. While the Democrats have reason to be encouraged by the fact that Democratic principles have grown in popularity and that Democratic policies are now praised by many who denounced them a few years ago and while further encouragement is to be derived from the fact that the Democratic party is more united than it has been for many years, and the Republican party more divided, still the action of the Democratic party cannot be dependent upon the prospect of success. The prospects now seem excellent, but the Democratic national convention will be held, platform adopted and candidates nominated, whether the prospects are bright or gloomy, and the party must make the best fight it can, whether it enters the campaign with fear or with confidence. The Democrats believe that the Democratic principles are sound, and that the Democratic policies are necessary; they should therefore, endorse those principles and present those policies and then select as their candidates those who, in their judgment, will give the party the greatest assurance of benefit in case of victory.

"If the members of the party believe Bryan's nomination will help the party, its principles and its policies, he will accept the nomination, whether the indications point to defeat or victory. Defeat can bring no disgrace, where the cause is just a cause, but cowardice would be disgraceful, especially in one who is as deeply indebted to his party as Bryan is.

"The next campaign will be an appeal to the public conscience. Investigations have shown not only a corrupt use of large funds, but the only source from which they can be drawn namely corporations that seek to convert men into a business asset.

"The Democratic party stands for a doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none and therefore cannot show favors to favor-seeking corporations. If it made such promises to a corporation, it would be guilty of duplicity, for it would have to betray the voters as the Republican party has done, in order to reward those corporations as the Republican party has rewarded them. The Democratic campaign must be carried on by volunteers, who will work because they desire the triumph of the Democratic ideas. We cannot hope to appeal to the sordid, or to buy purchasable, even if such a course would contribute toward Democratic success. No one should favor Bryan's nomination unless the party is willing to open its books and show where its contributions come from and for what the money is expended. The Republican party ought to be challenged to conduct its campaign in this open and honest way, and if the Republican leaders refused to accept the challenge, the Democrats can well afford to leave the issue with the public.

"An appeal to the conscience is politically expedient, as well as morally right, for the conscience is the most potent force with which man deals. The national conscience has already been aroused, and a large majority of the voters have been educated to the necessity of real reform—a reform that will make this government again a government of the people, by the people and for the people. It only remains for the Democratic party to convince the voters that it can be entrusted with the work of reform and nothing will do more to convince the public than the refusal to negotiate the predatory wealth and an honest appeal by honest methods to the honest sentiment of the country."

HARAHAN REPLIES TO CRITICISMS

Doesn't Like Fish's Strictures
on Illinois Central

Says Things Fish Complains of, He Advocated as President of the System.

MAILED TO STOCKHOLDERS

Chicago, Nov. 15.—A circular letter, containing several rather strong and convincing statements has been mailed to the stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad by President J. T. Harahan. It is regarded as a reply to the many statements made by Stuyvesant Fish in his efforts to secure the election of his candidates as directors, and Mr. Harahan uses some very forceful language. While he has refrained from using "the shorter but uglier word," the result is the same. He says Mr. Fish has made untruthful statements and knew he was far from the facts when he made them.

Mr. Harahan is quite vigorous in his denunciation of Mr. Fish's efforts to cause the stockholders to fear for the welfare of the Illinois Central, and plainly says that the things Mr. Fish so vehemently objects to were all done during Mr. Fish's incumbency of the president's chair and with his knowledge, consent and enthusiastic approval.

The tone of the circular, while quite dignified and earnest, is not calculated to cause a cessation of hostilities. Mr. Harahan appears to take the ground that the fight is between the directors and Mr. Fish, and that as a business proposition the stockholders will profit more by sending their proxies to him than to Mr. Fish. In fact, he touches the pocket book and eliminates sentiment.

The circular states that the traffic interchange with the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific is vastly more beneficial to the Illinois Central than it is to the other two lines. The Illinois Central was built into Omaha by Mr. Fish to secure a portion of the interchange business of the Union Pacific, and because of the relations now existing, and made by Mr. Fish, the Illinois Central is given a very good share of the traffic. The Union Pacific has several excellent outlets east bound from Omaha and need not give a pound of freight to the Illinois Central, while the Illinois Central has no western connection but the Union Pacific at Omaha. A severance of close traffic relations would result in a reduced revenue for the Illinois Central.

The interchange at New Orleans is almost a parallel case. North bound the Southern Pacific can give its through business to two other through lines and leave the Illinois Central with only its own business, while the Illinois Central would be compelled to give the Southern Pacific the through western business it takes into New Orleans, without a corresponding return. At that, Mr. Harahan makes the direct statement that the business received from the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific is much greater than that given both lines by the Illinois Central.

In speaking of the various commodities that the Illinois Central transports and its diversified destinations, Mr. Harahan makes the claim that it would be impossible for the officers of the Illinois Central to make any tariff alliances with any line which would divert this originating traffic from its natural channels. The records of the interchange with the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific show that they gave the Illinois Central 46 per cent more business than they received during the past six years. All of this business could have been routed by other lines, if the Pacific roads had so desired.

The circular dwells upon Mr. Fish's accusations of the juggling of accounts and his questioning of the June net earnings. Mr. Harahan shows by Mr. Fish's instructions that in June, 1906, a large sum was charged to expenses in order to clear up outstanding matters, and that because of better handling during the succeeding year, each month bore its proportionate share of expenses, leaving a big increase for June, 1907, as against June, 1906, but an increase that was earned and properly accounted for.

Mr. Harahan appears to take very seriously the reflections of Mr. Fish upon the accounting officers and their methods and makes it appear that Mr. Fish is criticizing, without warrant or reason, men in whom he hitherto has had the greatest confidence and methods which were stamped with his approval. Mr. Harahan insists that men and methods are not changed and that Mr. Fish's charges are deliberate misstatements.

It is understood that other statements and charges of Mr. Fish will be discussed in circulars to be issued at an early date.

State Development Convention

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 15.—From every indication it is believed that the Sixth State Development convention, which will convene at the Galt house next Tuesday morning, will be the greatest meeting of the kind ever held in the south. A meeting of the local committee of arrangements was held yesterday afternoon at the headquarters of the Kentucky State Development association in the Commercial building, and it was found that all arrangements to this date have been satisfactorily completed.

It is believed, that at the dinner the delegates will get in closer touch with each other, and an attractive program with short speeches is now being arranged.

On Tuesday afternoon, November 19, the opening day of the convention, the Commercial club will entertain at a reception in honor of the delegates.

The idea of the state development convention originated in the Commercial club by William A. Robinson, and the first meeting was held in Louisville in May, 1898. Since that time the Commercial club has practically fathered the project and has contributed largely to the furtherance of the plan for an active permanent organization.

in Louisville in May, 1898. Since that time the Commercial club has practically fathered the project and has contributed largely to the furtherance of the plan for an active permanent organization.

This reception will be of a more or less informal nature, and the delegates will have abundant opportunities to become acquainted with the members of the Commercial club.

This reception will be of a more or less informal nature, and the delegates will have abundant opportunities to become acquainted with the members of the Commercial club.

Among the reports made by the chairmen of the various committees, one which was considered particularly interesting at the meeting, was that of P. H. Callahan, chairman of committee on hotels. Mr. Callahan reported that he had personally seen the proprietors or managers of all hotels in Louisville and that they had assured him that there will be absolutely no increase in hotel rates during the convention. This, coupled with the fact that all the railroads in Kentucky have declared a rate of one fare for the round trip during the week of the convention, should arouse much interest throughout the state. Tickets will be sold under this rate on November 17, 18 and 19, good returning until November 23. This will allow those who care to do so, to stay nearly a week in Louisville.

While the preparations mentioned have occupied much of the time of the local committee, the committee on delegations has been busily co-operating with the members of the executive committee in each congressional district. By careful labor the executive committee have gotten together excellent lists of leading men from every county, and every county judge has appointed such delegations as seem proper to him.

A vast amount of correspondence has been handled at the headquarters of the association and every one known to be interested in the progress of the state has been given an opportunity to aid in the work. A very large majority of the counties in Kentucky is now represented in the files of delegates, and it is believed that by the end of this week all, or nearly all, will be represented.

The program for the convention is rapidly growing in importance and will soon be given to the printer. A preliminary form has been made up and the speakers have been wired the day upon which they are to speak, and most of these have signified their satisfaction with the arrangements.

PETER PURYEAR, Notary Public.
My commission expires January 22, 1908.Daily Thought.
I know no failure, save failure in cleaving to the purpose which I know to be the best.—George Eliot.

Soon we are to go through the distressing ordeal of securing another trial jury.

The idea of increasing the number of voting precincts in Paducah is an excellent one; 250 or 300 votes in a precinct are sufficient. A man should not be compelled to stand in line and wait for an hour for a chance to cast his ballot. Neither should there be an opportunity offered for politicians of either party to work schemes to prevent the other side getting all its votes in.

Now let us give our united support to all sanitary suggestions. The doctors have raised the price of medical service.

As a compromise, Roosevelt might inscribe on the coins: "In God We Bust Trusts."

THE PROFESSION OF TEACHING. School teaching is a profession or a job, just as the teachers themselves make it. Whatever attitude toward their occupation the teachers assume, sooner or later the public will adopt. This comes closer to the question of remuneration that most teachers appreciate, perhaps, and is a matter they will have to settle for themselves before they may expect the public to show appreciation of the value and importance of their services.

It is not possible that people do not realize how hard teachers work and how self-sacrificing they must be; and teachers wonder why this realization does not move the great public to increase their wages. The study of history and economics should teach them that sacrifice has its own peculiar compensations, and the reward of martyrdom is a crown in heaven. The question of compensation depends entirely on the teachers themselves, not individually but collectively, and everyone that fails in his or her part delays the ultimate realization of the calling to the status of a profession.

Just so long as teachers regard their occupation as a job by which they earn their living, just so long will the taxpaying public regard teaching in the same light, and naturally seek to have that job performed as cheaply as possible. Just as soon as teachers assume a professional attitude toward their calling, establish ethics, take pride in interest in school affairs outside the narrow confines of their grade room, exchange ideas and develop understanding and capacity for their work, attend associations, and acquire of themselves certain standards of ideals and attainments to be acquired at normal schools and sustained by study and co-operation, the public will place teaching among the learned professions, and remuneration will inevitably follow the standards.

There are normal schools in this state. There are state, district and county conventions and associations have closed for the present, as they in Kentucky. They are not well attended. Why? We have a right to ask that question.

Does the teacher think his or her work has no relation to anything outside the school room (in which he or she teaches)? If it has not, the teacher has a job, that ranks with common labor, and the teacher rightly is paid just what the demand for that class of work warrants. And the teacher is justified in considering his work done when the bell rings or the whistle blows.

If teaching is a profession, then the work of that teacher is related to the work being done by other teachers in other rooms, in other grades, in other buildings in the same city; to the work being done in other schools in the state, in the country and in the world. Professional people work all the time.

These normal schools are established by the state, and these state, district and county associations are held for the direct benefit of nobody on earth except the teachers. If the teachers do not regard their calling of sufficient consequence to give up their time outside school hours to developing themselves and endeavoring to improve school conditions generally, they should not expect other people to have any more consideration for them, than they have for themselves.

This is no excuse for the shamefully small salaries paid school teachers. The teachers have no warmer friend and advocate of increased salaries than The Sun. Indeed, it is that friendly interest in teachers and their work that induced this advice, and whatever excuse any teacher may have for not heeding it, that does not alter the facts, or relieve that teacher of one iota of the responsibility for conditions.

Secretary Loeb has declined the presidency of the street railway company of Washington, D. C., and wise acres have taken that as another indication of Roosevelt's ambition. We must be very discreet what we say, or the Washington correspondents will draw inferences.

CHAPTER XII.

Luella Knapp.

Two women rose to greet me as I entered the room.

"Good evening," said the elder woman, holding out her hand. "You have neglected us for a long time."

There was something of reproach as well as civility in the voice.

"Yes," I replied, adjusting my manner nicely to her, "I have been very busy."

"Busy? How provoking of you to say so! You should never be too busy to take the commands of the ladies."

"That is why I am here," I interrupted with my best bow. But she continued without noting it:

"Luella wagered with me that you would make that excuse. I expected something more original."

"I am very sorry," I said, with a reflection of the bantering air she had assumed.

"Oh, indeed!" exclaimed the younger woman, to whom my eyes had turned as Mrs. Knapp spoke her name.

"How very unkind of you to say so, when I have just won a pair of gloves by it. Good evening to you!" And she held out her hand.

It was with a strong effort that I kept my self-possession, as for the first time I clasped the hand of Luella Knapp.

Was it the thrill of her touch, the glance of her eye, or the magnetism of her presence, that set my pulses beating to a new measure, and gave my spirit a breath from a new world?

WEAK LUNGS NEED VINOOL

Many people inherit weak lungs, which are likely to be attacked by consumption. So also are lungs weakened by disease or by a stubborn hacking cough.

No matter what the cause, Vinol strengthens weak lungs and gives one the power to throw off wasting diseases.

The reason that Vinol has such power to heal and strengthen is because it contains in a highly concentrated form all the curative, medicinal and strength-creating elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

So sure are we of what Vinol will do that we ask every person in Paducah suffering from weak lungs, stubborn hacking coughs or any wasting disease to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails. W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky.

The Silver Linning.

We are told every cloud has its silver lining. Just now, while the bankers and financiers in general are still wrestling with the stringency in the money markets, which, by the way, are slowly but surely improving, far-sighted men are expressing opinions in accord with the following from The London Statist, one of the principal financial papers in England:

"It is to be recollected that the United States has had an extraordinarily long run of wonderfully good times. Wealth has accumulated in an unexampled rate. Farmers who formerly were deeply in debt are now highly prosperous. After a while, therefore, it is reasonable to presume that the depression will pass away, and with a revival of confidence new enterprise will be entered into. It is not, however, to be expected that the depression will pass away immediately. It may last for a year, or even more. The first influence, of course, will be to accumulate money in New York, and when people recover courage and all the deposits now hidden away are again brought forth, the accumulation of unemployed money will be such that rates probably will go down to 2 per cent, or possibly even lower. Then speculation will begin again, as it advances, and the extraordinary fall in prices which we have witnessed during the present year will be followed by an equally extraordinary rise in prices. Europe, moreover, will be attracted by the very low quotations, and we may reasonably anticipate that European investment in American securities will be larger than it has been for twenty years past. If so, the European investment will add to the immense accumulation of unemployed money in the United States, and after a while will provide the necessary stimulus for the revival of new enterprise. Over and above all this, the United States produces commodities which the world cannot do without, and for some of these, as it happens, the demand is exceptional at present. Naturally everybody will be eager to export as much as possible, and the exports will help to accelerate the revival."

Now let us give our united support to all sanitary suggestions. The doctors have raised the price of medical service.

As a compromise, Roosevelt might inscribe on the coins: "In God We Bust Trusts."

what ever the case, as I looked into the clear-cut face and the frank gray eyes of the woman before me, I was swept by a flood of emotion that was near overpowering my self-control.

I mastered the emotion in a moment and took the seat to which she had waved me.

I was puzzled a little at the tone in which she addressed me. There was a suggestion of resentment in her manner that grew on me as we talked.

Can I describe her? Of what use to try? She was not beautiful, and "pretty" was too petty a word to apply to Luella Knapp. "Fine looking," if said with the proper emphasis, might give some idea of appearance, for she was tall in figure, with features that were impressive in their attractiveness.

Through all the conversation the idea that Miss Knapp was regarding me with a hidden disapproval was growing on me. I decided that Henry had made some uncommon blunder on his last visit and that I was suffering the penalty for it. The admiration I felt for the young woman deepened with every sentence she spoke, and I was ready to do anything to restore the good opinion that Henry might have endangered, and in lieu of apology exerted myself to the utmost to be agreeable.

I was unconscious of the flight of time until Mrs. Knapp turned from some other guests and walked toward us.

"Come, Henry," she said pointedly. Luella is not to monopolize you all the time. Besides, there's Mr. Inman lying to speak to her."

I promptly hated Mr. Inman with all my heart and felt not the slightest objection to his demise; but at her gesture of command I rose and accompanied Mrs. Knapp, as a young man with eye-glasses and a smile came to take my place. I left Luella Knapp, congratulating myself over my cleverness in escaping the pitfalls that lined my way.

"Now I've a chance to speak to you at last," said Mrs. Knapp.

"At your service," I bowed. "I owe you something."

"Indeed?" Mrs. Knapp raised her eyebrows in surprise.

For your kind recommendation to Mr. Knapp."

"My recommendation? You have a little the advantage of me."

I was stricken with painful doubts, and the cold sweat started upon me. Perhaps this was not Mrs. Knapp after all.

"Oh, perhaps you didn't mean it," I said.

"Indeed I did, if it was a recommendation. I'm afraid it was unconscious, though. Mr. Knapp does not consult me about his business."

I was in doubt no longer. It was the injured pride of the wife that spoke in the tone.

"To none the less obliged," I said carelessly. "He assured me that he acted on your words."

"What on earth are you doing for Mr. Knapp?" she asked earnestly, dropping her half-bantering tone. There was a trace of apprehension in her eyes.

"I'm afraid Mr. Knapp wouldn't think your recommendations were quite justified if I should tell you. Just get him in a corner and ask him."

"I suppose it is that dreadful stock market."

"Oh, madam, let me say the chicken market. There is a wonderful opportunity just now for corner in fowls."

"There are a good many to be plucked in the market that Mr. Knapp will look after," she said with a smile. But there was something of a worried look behind it. "Oh, you know, Henry, that I can't bear the market. I have seen too much of the misery that comes from it."

She shuddered as she looked about her, as though in fancy she saw herself turned from the palace into the street.

"Mr. Knapp is not a man to lose," I said.

"Mr. Knapp is a strong man," she said with a proud straightening of her figure. "But the whirlpool can suck down the strongest swimmer."

"But I suspect Mr. Knapp makes whirlpools instead of swimming into them," I said meaningfully.

"Ah, Henry," she said sadly, "how often have I told you that the best plan may come to ruin in the market? It may not take much to start a boulder rolling down the mountain-side, but who is to tell it to stop when once it is set going?"

PEOPLE
AND SOCIAL EVENTSMrs. Warterfield Complimented in Mayfield.

The Mayfield Monitor of November 14, gives an account of a pretty tribute paid to Mrs. Clough A. Warterfield, wife of the Rev. C. A. Warterfield, pastor of the First Methodist church in Mayfield, who has served the 4-year time of his church there.
Mr. and Mrs. Warterfield have visited in Paducah and are very popular here. The Monitor says:

"A lovely tribute was paid to friendship last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. J. F. Blalock tendered a farewell reception to Mrs. C. A. Warterfield at the beautiful Blalock home on College street. The sweet and lovable character of Mrs. Warterfield has made her a general favorite during her four years of residence here, and friends in the church and out of the church, and all denominations availed themselves of the opportunity to bid her God-speed in her new sphere of influence. The reception was most enjoyable. A delightful program consisting of music by Mesdames Robbins and Hester,
some choice selections read by Mrs.
Warterfield, and a few remarks apropos of friendship by Mrs. Moorman made the moments speed with golden wings. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. A profusion of beautiful golden chrysanthemums adorned the tea table, which was presided over by some dainty young ladies, friends of the hostess. After partaking of the "cup

"Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took.
For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for

By agreement the suit of the Kentucky and Indiana State bank at West

the outcome of a misunderstanding
regarding a lease on a piece of farm

ALWAYS AS SICK

When a man says he is always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such is the case with M. G. C. Davis Col. writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition, tried Ballard's Hore-hound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me."

WILL NOT PERMIT ATTACK ON BROWN

Mrs. Bradley to Protect Name of Man She Murdered

Letters and Children Are Sufficient Justification for Her Deed, She Says.

LAWYER'S PLEA IS INSANITY

Washington, Nov. 15.—It is evident that attorneys for Mrs. Bradley will depend upon the plea of insanity as their defense. If there was any confidence in the plea of justification it was not expressed.

The charge upon which Mrs. Bradley is held is that of deliberately murdering former United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, in his room at a hotel in this city on December 8, 1906.

Mrs. Bradley has admitted the killing, and there will be no effort to show that his death resulted from any other cause than the shot fired by her.

Mrs. Bradley had given her life to Attorney Brown. They had two children, and the murder is supposed to have been caused by her discovery that he was about to marry another woman. This woman is Mrs. Annie C. Adams, mother of Maude Adams, the actress.

Writes of Thaw Case.

Letters written by Mrs. Bradley in jail give an interesting glimpse of this woman who sacrificed all for the love of a man, and took his life when he would cast her aside. Of the Thaw trial she wrote that Evelyn's story was full of discrepancies, but she added:

"My sympathy is with Evelyn. No one can really appreciate how much of an ordeal it was, and even though one may be depraved and stupid and declare they never knew anything else, it is not easy to tell it publicly. She has had to make a terrible sacrifice."

The written record is not so easily lived down or overcome as rumor.

She is paying a penalty that marks the beginning of much heartache and endless shame and remorse for both herself and husband."

Thought He Loved Her.

Shortly after the shooting she said in a letter to a friend:

"No matter what the contradictions that appear in every act and word of his thought and life—I know when he took me in his arms four weeks ago tonight and kissed the tears from my eyes—and with his own streaming down his face, said: 'Dolly, the love of father, mother, sisters, brothers and a hundred loves could never equal my love for you. You are the realization of the dream of my youth, the dream and the realization. I love you with the tenderest feelings I have ever felt. I love you with the strongest passion of my life. You know it—you know it. Dolly.' There was no dissembling. He spoke what he then felt, and I believe they were his innermost, secret feelings."

Wants Fair Trial.

Looking forward to her trial, she wrote: "I think the stand I have maintained right along, that there shall be no more mud-raking when absolutely necessary, will be followed by my own attorneys. I think the less of it the better."

"The letters and the children and his many, many pledges to me will make a stronger case than attacks upon him. This is my idea, and I told the lawyers it was my neck for it."

This appears in one of her more recent letters:

"It is awful to be absorbed in such black despair as I am. I have lost the dream of doing and the other dream of done, and the optimism I always boasted—the courage I always boasted—the smile I always flaunted—the hope that never failed me—are nowhere about, either within or without. When the sun shines brightest it seems to mock me, and I like the cloudy days best."

"It is my real nature, I believe, to consider the sunshine, the storm, the rain or the wind, or the clouds are reason enough for being happy in this world, so I have always yielded to the weather—and met tragedies with all the spirit of comedy I could inject into them, but my comedies, my tragedies, my hopes, my life have fallen like a house of cards, and I am the house."

NEW RICHMOND HOUSE HAS TWO WEDDING PARTIES.

The marriage record at the New Richmond House is being pushed steadily upward. The Rev. C. M. Thompson yesterday married Mr. Green Clements, of Lynvile, and Mrs. Arthur Glass, of Carrsville, in the parlors of the hotel. Mr. A. J. Gilbert and Miss Alice McNutt, of Mayfield, were married yesterday in Fulton and are now registered at the New Richmond. Miss McNutt is the daughter of Mayfield's popular chief of police.

WANTS BETTER BANKING LAWS.

Governor Hughes Asks Financiers to Submit Suggestions.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Governor Hughes last night gave out a letter in which he requests that A. B. Hepburn, Edwin S. Marston, Edward W. Sheldon, Algernon S. Frissell, Stephen Baker and Andrew Mills, all banking or trust company officials of New York City, shall act as a committee for the purpose of collating facts, receiving suggestions and expressing their views with reference to changes deemed advisable in the laws of the state relating to the incorporation, conduct of business and supervision of banks and trust companies. The governor asks that this committee undertake this work solely as a matter of public service, without provision for compensation or indemnity for expenses, and says he will be glad to receive its report on or before December 15. It is believed that all the men named will serve.

SECRET TO MUCH

COLORED WOMAN CONFESSES TO WITNESSING A MURDER.

Stewart Harrison Killed His Nephew and Carried Body to Middle of Upper Lake in Illinois.

Following the confession of a negro woman, named Hamilton, that she was witness to the murder of Clem Stewart by Harrison Stewart, a wealthy colored farmer living near the upper lake in Illinois opposite Paducah, Harrison Stewart was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Lytton at Metropolis, and placed in jail. It is said that the accused confessed to the crime after he had been confronted with the woman's confession. He told the officers that he killed his nephew because his nephew had been intimate with his wife. He fired the fatal shot as the boy was riding a horse, and when the boy fell he took the corpse in a canoe and carried it out in the lake and dropped it in the water.

The woman's confession was made in a peculiar manner. She was aboard the steamer Cowling at Metropolis wharf and suddenly broke down, saying that she knew something she could keep no longer. She then told what the secret was and officers were summoned and she made a complete confession.

Pain Weakens

Headache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or pains of any nature weaken the system—they are a strain upon the nerves. Almost instant relief can be obtained by taking Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills, and without any bad after-effects. Take one on first indication of an attack—it will ward it off. They are a pleasant little tablet, sold by druggists everywhere, 25 doses 25 cents; never sold in bulk.

"I was subject to constant headaches for a period of four years. At times I was almost unnerved for the work in which I am engaged, that of station agent. Through the advice of a friend I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and the result has been that I have entirely eradicated my system of those continuous headaches that follow a constant strain. They have done for me all that is claimed for them."

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong?

The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulence, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless treated, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is

Baby Mine

Every mother feels a great dread of the pain

the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery.

WHO FOR ADJUTANT GENERAL?

Louisville, Nov. 15.—Discussion of the policies of the new Republican administration at Frankfort and the patronage which is to be distributed between now and the first of the year, was had at a meeting of the newly-elected Republican state officers at a meeting in the Louisville hotel yesterday afternoon. Governor-elect Willson presided at the meeting, which was held behind closed doors.The meeting in truth, no better family laxative than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It's gentle and effective action and pleasant taste recommend it especially to weak stomachs, children and old people. It is equally good for the most robust who become constipated or suffer from indigestion, sour stomach, biliousness and other stomach, liver and bowel ailments. It is a reliable laxative and even a 50 cent bottle will help many members of a family to better health.Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who are in need of a laxative. It is equally good for symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Consider most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed permanent home cure. THE COST OF THE BOTTLE IS 50 CENTS. Send for sample and order as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.Do You Digest
What You Eat?It is one thing to eat and quite another to digest the food. Many people can't do the latter and suffer for years from indigestion without really knowing what is the matter with them. They just know that their "stomach is out of order."But the most important thing, after all is known, is what is to be done for them. It is enough to know what to do. If the advice of thousands of people is convincing to you then we say take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
As its name indicates, it is just the right size, and that size is proved by files of voluntary testimonials in our office. More direct and permanent proof can be obtained by going to your physician and asking him to prescribe Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.Take it and you will be well; better still, results are guaranteed, so you risk nothing.Hon. George G. Rankin, formerly of Monroe, Ill., and now of St. Louis, Mo., D. C., who holds a high position with the Government, is a warm friend of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

He found it an invaluable tonic

and that success is proved by files of voluntary tion of the Confederate soldiers, who contributed so largely to the election of the state ticket. Very little faith, however, is placed in General Duke's candidacy. He now holds a federal office as a member of the Shiloh commission to which he was appointed by President Roosevelt. His salary as a member of the commission is $3,000.Perhaps the most talked-of candidate in connection with the office of adjutant general is Captain Jackson Morris, of Washington. It is said that Captain Morris has the backing of the war department officials, and his friends believe that he would be able to get whatever is coming to Kentucky from the national government in the way of aid to the state militia. Captain Morris' friends say that should he fail of this appointment he will be made assistant secretary of state. The office of adjutant general pays $2,000 annually, and that of assistant secretary of state $1,800 annually.

Prof. Bell Slated.

A dispatch from Harrodsburg yesterday announced the appointment of Professor Charles W. Bell as insurance commissioner by Auditorelect Frank James. Mr. James stated yesterday afternoon that he had not yet made the appointment, but it is believed that he will do so within the next few days. The place pays $3,000 a year. Professor Bell has been principal of the Harrodsburg graded school for twenty years.
Friends of John C. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, treasurer of the Republican state committee, and former railroad commissioner, who is a candidate for the position, are working hard in his behalf, and they believe that there is a possibility of his getting it. Mr.
Wood is extremely popular with Republicans throughout the state.It is the wish of the various successful candidates that the patronage at their disposal be distributed as evenly as possible over the state, and it is believed that the plan will be fully carried out when the appointments are announced officially.

FOR Adjutant General.

It is understood that there has been something of a scramble for the office of adjutant general. Governor Willson will insist, it is said, that this responsible office be given to a well-trained and disciplined military man, and one who will put forth his best efforts to build up the state militia.
There have been numerous applicants for the office, and many friends of the applicants have besieged Governor Willson in their behalf since election. It was said yesterday that friends of General Basil Duke, a prominent figure in military history, had spoken to the governor and urged his appointment, setting forth that it would be a graceful recognition of the office in amazement.

Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses—no derangements that should have your attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which do more damage than the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.No medicine extant has such a long and varied history as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.No medicine has such a strong professional reputation as each of its seven ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional remedies. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of female diseases, entered into its composition.No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in thelist of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapped and attested under oath.In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. It is a tonic to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease,
the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and the long list of other horrible trouble. I've been lying with families and studying their cases
for twenty-five years, and I've never known the sign to fail.A sleek, comfortable pussy who comes up and rubs against you means a quiet, good-natured family, and one is on the verge of nervous prostration or financial ruin or some other terrible affliction. I've been lying

for twenty-five years, and I've never known the sign to fail.A family that can't make its eat-

Activity among the towboats manages to relieve the river of some of the depression of business that otherwise might attend it. Holiday business will soon begin and the packets will fare better. The river is still rising at a decreasing rate this morning's gauge showing a rise of 0.3 since yesterday. Heavy fogs have interfered with steamboat navigation for the last few mornings.

A rare sight to present day river men was seen here the other day when an old-time produce boat floated down from the Ohio river. These boats were common 20 or even 10 years ago and was the kind on which Abraham Lincoln made a trip to New Orleans. This flatboat probably was loaded with apples.

Taking advantage of the withdrawal of the Cairo packet, the George Cowling is making its schedule now to Joppa instead of Metropolis, and the handsome little packet is doing a big business.

After an overhauling at the dry docks, the I. N. Hook will be let into the river this afternoon or in the morning. A fine barge, 26 by 135 feet, is being built for the Ryman line at the dry docks. Capt. Young Taylor, the superintendent, has plans drawn for a new residence for himself.

The Martha Hennen went to the Tennessee river this morning with Captain M. Furnan at the wheel.

The Bluespot arrived this morning before 8 o'clock from the Tennessee river with a good trip of ties and is unloading at Joppa today. If unloaded in time, the Bluespot will return tonight to the Tennessee river.

Just before the Bluespot arrived this morning, the Pavonia, of the Ayer-Lord fleet, arrived from the Tennessee river also with a good trip of ties, which will be unloaded at Brookport. The Pavonia will leave tonight or tomorrow for the Tennessee river.

Steam was in the boilers of the Margaret, of the Ayer-Lord line, this morning to get away for the Tennessee river after ties.

Arrivals today will be towboats principally. The Vincennes is due from the Cumberland river.

Coal will be brought from Caseyville today by the Reaper for the West Kentucky Coal company.

All the river can hold, is the description of the tow being brought down by the Peter Sprague, the largest towboat in the world. The Sprague should arrive tonight with its immense tow and soon after the big J. B. Finley should arrive with hundreds of thousands of bushels.

Owing to trouble in getting the hands, the Nellie Willett, the new towboat in the Tennessee river, did not get away until today.

Fog last night and this morning delayed the arrival of the Kentucky until this morning. The Kentucky will unload some freight at Brookport and leave Saturday evening for the Tennessee river.

Somewhat late, the R. Dunbar arrived last night from Evansville and left immediately on the return trip. Today's packet will be the Butteroff.

Captain Frank Rowder is in the city while his boat, the J. T. Reader, is being repaired at the marine ways. The Reader will be finished in ten days.

The Charles Turner is expected from the Tennessee river today with ties.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio, at Evansville, not much change during the next 12 hours, then rise again. At Mt. Vernon, will continue rising slowly during the next 24 hours. At Paducah and Cairo, will continue rising during the next two days.

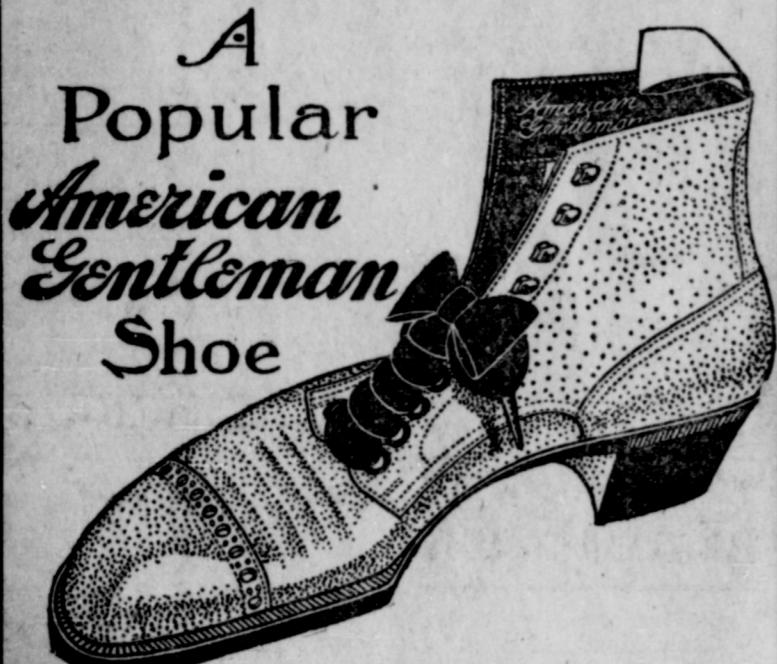

The Tennessee, from Florence to the mouth, will continue rising during the next two days.

The Mississippi, from below St. Louis to above Cairo, will continue falling slowly during the next 36 hours.

MAYOR SMITH

SKATES GRACEFULLY ON FLOOR OF AUDITORIUM RINK.

He Finds Time From Parceling Out Plums to Cut a Few Didos on the Hardwood.

Mayor-elect Smith is one of the busiest men to be found anywhere these days, from sun to sun. He is not too busy for a little diversion, however, and last night with Mr. Gus Thompson, he went out to the rink and indulged in the latest craze for two or three hours. He said he had not been on "rollers" for over ten years, but soon hit his stride and skated as gracefully as any of them. The rink is proving quite a diversion and business has increased each day. "We are adopting some rules that we shall enforce strictly hereafter, for the protection both of ourselves and our patrons," said Manager Crumbaugh today. "We have found several patrons bringing in skates under their arms, and hereafter they will be barred from the rink. Saturday night is the last night that we shall permit beginners to go on the floor. In the future they can only go on during beginners' hours, and from 6 to 7 at night. Then, too, we shall enforce the rule against fast skating, as we appreciate the element of danger in it."

FINE LAUNCHES

TWO OF THEM IN PADUCAH WATERS ON WAY SOUTH.

Gasoline launches seen so far in Paducah were totally eclipsed this morning with the arrival of the "Palma" from Cincinnati, on its way to New Orleans; and of the "Advance," from the Tennessee river on its way to Chicago. J. D. Lacey, wealthy Chicagoan, is owner of the "Palma" and will meet his boat in New Orleans. It was designed and built by V. L. Emerson, of Cincinnati, and this is the first trip. Harry Doss, of Cincinnati, is pilot; J. V.

Rason, engineer; Ed Meninger, captain, and J. B. Ferguson, of Evansville, is assistant pilot. They are five days out from Cincinnati and are taking the trip leisurely. The engines are 110 horse power. On the inside the "Palma" is built like a Pullman sleeper in hardwood. There is a sanitary toilet room, kitchen, and the lockers are finished off in maple wood with cushions. The boat is 60 feet long, 12 feet wide and draws 30 inches at the head and stern and 4½ feet in the middle. From New Orleans the "Palma" will run around in southern waters. It is the biggest and handsomest gasoline launch ever seen in this harbor.

The "Advance" is 46 feet long and 8 feet wide with a tonnage of 11 tons. W. P. Needham and wife and two others from Chicago are on board and are two weeks out of Chicago. The boat will be carried to St. Louis, but has been up the Tennessee river on a duck hunting trip. The "Advance" will leave tomorrow while the "Palma" left this morning. Both boats attract attention by their steel hulls.

The average temperature of the entire globe is 50 degrees Fahrenheit.

$7.50 Suits

These $7.50 suits are certainly dandies. They are cut and tailored with the same careful attention to detail which has made our reputation solid on higher priced clothes.

When you are in tomorrow, ask to see some of the new cut single and double breasted suits in dependable worsteds, cassimeres, cheviots and black thibets. They'll surely surprise you.

$7.50 Overcoats

Whether you want a long coat or a medium length box back coat, we can satisfy you in our $7.50 line. There are blue and black beavers, kerseys, fancy cheviots and cassimeres in a variety of good, staple patterns—good values—you'll say so yourself.

Now, you may not even consider yourself a $7.50 man, but if you have been paying $10.00 or $12.50 in other stores for your suit or overcoat, we're candidates for your trade. Compare our $7.50 suits and overcoats with the $10.00 and $12.50 ones sold elsewhere. Just do that and we'll leave the rest to your good judgement.
